

BASIS NEURO

2018 Media Kit

Nik Sviridov
CEO

Nik Sviridov is a successful entrepreneur in the field of information technologies since 2010. Cooperation with such companies as Sberbank, Pension Fund of the Russian Federation, Government of the Russian Federation and regions, Regional corporation of Development of Rostov region, accelerator "Southern IT- park", Fund of development of Internet initiatives, Skolkovo, Development of innovations Fund , Woregaming, Microsoft Russia, the world's largest cyber stadium. During the last 10 years in collaboration with successful scientists he participated in the latest developments in the field of neurotechnologies.

Since 2015, after selling his own successful business, he is the head of his own company - BasisNeuro - the leading project in the field of neuro-control technologies , which is aimed at such markets as VR, Games, medicine, education, corporate decisions for management and optimization. He actively cooperates with charities and funds of support of people with disabilities around the world. He graduated from Southern Federal University, degree in Radiophysics. He received the second higher education in management, studied the financial markets and corporate finance. The winner of the contest "Start-up 2016". The project twice became the best one in the accelerator "Southern IT-park", received a grant from the leading Russian Development of innovations Fund.

-  basisneuro.com
-  3k members
-  600 followers
-  500 followers

About the project

Forget how you used millions of buttons and switchers. Just think to CONTROL EVERYTHING. Basis Neuro created unique devices with neuro-interface to manage things around you with your thoughts.